

A3 Communications Opens Charlotte Office; Expanding Client Services

COLUMBIA, SC (October 28, 2014) — A3 Communications, Inc., America's fourth fastest growing systems integrator, has opened a spacious office in Charlotte, N.C., to accommodate their growing client base. Conveniently located near Charlotte's airport at 4119 Rose Lake Drive, A3 is already supporting new clients with additional services, including electrical solutions, from the metropolitan site.

"Opening a Charlotte office allows us to serve our loyal clients from a convenient location, while granting new opportunities," said Brian Thomas, A3's President. "I'm also excited that the expertise of new team members allows us to expand our service lines to include electrical services under an unlimited statewide electrical license."

The Charlotte office is managed by Jay Toomey, an experienced and accredited systems integration professional. Toomey is optimistic about his staff, a seasoned team of 11 members, and the new location's capabilities, stating "A3 understands how important it is to live and work alongside our clients."

"The Charlotte branch will help us understand the unique needs of our North Carolina customers and foster accessibility within the community," said Thomas. "A3 Communications is truly the 'one stop, one source' solution for the Southeast's IT needs."

The new office can be reached at (704) 253-4020. To learn more about A3 Communications, Inc. as a whole, visit www.a3communications.com.
