

A3 Communications Receives National 'Unsurpassed Excellence' Award For Third Consecutive Year

COLUMBIA, SC (August 22, 2014) — A3 Communications Inc., America's fourth fastest growing systems integrator, recently received Technology Assurance Group's (TAG) top award at the 14th annual TAG Convention in Nashville, Tenn. TAG, an international organization of independently owned unified communications companies in the United States and Canada, honored A3 Communications with the coveted "Unsurpassed Excellence" award.

As a result of A3 Communications' demonstrated expertise designing integrated technology to satisfy the needs of both small and mid-size clients, TAG President, Brian Suerth, concluded that the firm was the clear choice for this year's recognition.

"A3 continues to stand out as an exceptional TAG member," said Suerth. "It was not surprise that they have received this award three years in a row. They continuously prove their commitment to improving lives through technology by educating and providing clients with advancements to maximize efficiency."

A3 Chief Executive Officer, Joe Thomas, accepted the award on the company's behalf. "From the beginning, we have understood the importance of adopting new technology in its early stages. Our team works tirelessly to assure clients that our solutions will not only serve their current needs, but also grow with them in the future."

"We are honored to receive this accolade among such a sophisticated group of technology providers, and, as always, I am proud to be a part of such a great team," said Thomas.
