

A3 Communications Opens New Milledgeville, Ga., Office; Expands Footprint

Serving South Georgia and Northern Florida

MILLEDGEVILLE, GA (August 15, 2016) — A3 Communications, Inc., America's second fastest growing systems integrator, has opened an office in Milledgeville, Ga., to expand their service across the Peach State and into Florida. The new location will support the firm's other Georgia office in Atlanta, allowing staff to provide award-winning solutions for their growing client base.

"Not only are we ready to gain the trust of more clients in Georgia, we're also ready to serve the needs of Florida's businesses," said Brian Thomas, President. "It's important that we remain accessible to our customers."

The Milledgeville location is managed by Mark Johnson, RCDD, an experienced and accredited systems integration professional with strong ties to the area. Johnson is excited about the possibilities of this new facility, stating "I've lived in this region my entire life and understand the needs of this community. This office is an excellent way to conveniently serve the area."

Located at 994 Milledgeville Road, Unit C, in Eatonton, Ga., the staff of the new office are already exceeding client expectations. "To remain a 'one stop, one source' shop for our loyal customers, we need to be where they are. This site will help us do that," said

Thomas.

The Milledgeville office joins six other locations, including the corporate headquarters in Columbia, S.C., and locations in Greenville, S.C, Charleston, S.C., Charlotte, N.C, Atlanta, Ga., and Raleigh, N.C.

The new office can be reached at (478) 288-5680. To learn more about A3 Communications, visit their website at www.a3communications.com.
