

A3 Communications Opens New Raleigh, N.C., Office; Expands N.C. Footprint New Office in Apex, N.C.

APEX, NC (August 15, 2016) — A3 Communications, Inc., America's second fastest growing system integrator, has opened an office in the Raleigh, N.C. area, further expanding their service across the Tar Heel state. The new location at 1093 Investment Boulevard in Apex, N.C., will support the firm's other North Carolina office in Charlotte, allowing staff to provide award-winning solutions for their growing client base.

"With our record growth, it's crucial that we meet our clients' demands in a way that is convenient and accessible for them," said Brian Thomas, President. "I'm thrilled that we've hired such talented people to fill this new space and look forward to earning the trust of even more customers."

The Raleigh location is managed by Kyle Miller, Project Manager, an experienced and certified systems integration professional. Miller is excited about the possibilities of this new facility, stating "A3 realizes how important it is to live in the communities we serve."

Located in Apex, N.C., the staff of the new office are ready to exceed the expectations of the state's capital. "To remain a 'one stop, one source' shop for our loyal customers, we need to be where they are.

This site will help us do that," said Thomas.

The Raleigh office joins six other locations, including the corporate headquarters in Columbia, S.C., and locations in Greenville, S.C, Charleston, S.C., Charlotte, N.C, Atlanta, Ga., and Milledgeville, Ga.

The new office can be reached at (919) 948-4020. To learn more about A3 Communications, visit their website at www.a3communications.com.
